

ANNA LAMAR SWITZER CENTER FOR VISUAL ARTS

The Anna Lamar Switzer Center for Visual Arts is a Pensacola State College teaching institution that strives to exhibit, collect, interpret, lend and preserve the visual arts.

Located on the College's Pensacola campus, the center is supported by the Anna Society – a group of patrons who are passionate about arts education and cultural enrichment provided by the College. The society advocates for and provides foundational dollars to the Anna Lamar Switzer Center, enriching our community at large. Members of the Anna Society make a difference to Pensacola State by contributing their time, talents and treasures toward the cultural heritage and artistic future of Northwest Florida.

This past academic year, the Anna Lamar Switzer Center for Visual Arts has hosted:

- More than 40,000 people visited the Switzer Gallery
- 20 tours and class visits
- 5 professional artist workshops and demonstrations
- 5 visiting artist lectures, which included:
Jacqueline Bishop, GGA International Artist Talk, Aislinn Kate, Stephen Estrada and Roland Miller
